Calling All Local Authors! We're Accepting Submissions to the Fall Local Author Showcase @ Your Library!

The Pickens County Library System will host a Fall Local Author Showcase on Sunday, November 11 from 3:30-5:30pm at the Hampton Memorial Library in Easley. Space is limited to 15 authors who will meet and greet local readers, display and sell their books, and keep all proceeds from sales.

To be considered for the Showcase, you MUST:

- Be a present Pickens, Greenville, Anderson, or Oconee County resident who has published a book(s) within the past 3 years (including self-published, but excluding eBooks)
- Submit the following to: Attn: Programming Librarian, 304 Biltmore Rd, Easley, SC 29640:
 1. Name, phone number, email address
 2. One copy of your book(s)*. With the exception of poetry books, only books with proper bookbinding will be accepted. Books must look like real books. No pamphlets, brochures, or stapled material will be accepted.

All submissions become non-returnable gifts to the Pickens County Library System and will be reviewed by librarians for possible inclusion in the collection in accordance with the library's materials policy. Books not added to the collection will be donated to the library's Friends Book Sale.*

3. Copies of professional reviews of your book(s) if applicable
4. Copies of news articles or publicity about your book(s) if applicable

The deadline for submitting book(s) for possible inclusion in the Showcase is Friday, October 5. All authors will be notified electronically by Friday, October 12 regarding submissions. For more information, please call the library at 850-7077 or email reference@pickens.lib.sc.us
