April is Child Abuse Prevention Month

The Pickens County Library System is partnering with The Parenting Place to offer FREE programs focused on child safety and abuse prevention. Please join us for the following programs:

Wednesday, April 10 at 4:30 pm at the Village Library: Good Touch vs. Bad Touch

(4:30 pm with parents, 5 pm with kids)

This presentation is for parents and children to learn the fundamentals of good touch/bad touch. Parents will learn how to empower their children to practice safe touch, as well as safety tips to safe guard them from unsafe and unwanted touches.

Tuesday, April 16 at 11:30 am at the Sarlin Library: Family Communication (with activities for kids)

Bring your little one for Mother Goose on the Loose at 10:30 am, then stick around and learn how all behavior is communication. We'll discuss how when words can't express how we feel, our behavior can often tell our story

Saturday, April 27 at 10 am at the Central-Clemson Library: Safe Sleeping

Did you know that, according to the CDC, approximately 3,500 babies in the US are lost to sleep-related deaths each year? The good news is that many sleep-related infant deaths can be prevented! Please join us to learn about Safe Sleep Practices for infants and maybe you can save a life.

All who attend will be entered to win a $25 gift certificate to the Upstate Kids Consignment Sale.

Monday, April 29 at 6:30 pm at the Hampton Memorial Library: Recognizing Abuse and Neglect

This training will equip guests with the relevant laws regarding roles and responsibilities for mandated reporters. Participants will learn who mandated reporters are according to South Carolina law, statutory requirements and protections, signs of possible abuse and neglect, and when to make a report
