Scams & Identity Theft in the Digital Age Presented by the SC Department of Consumer Affairs

Phishing, SMiSHing and Skimming are just some of the tactics that scammers use to separate you from your personal information. Join us at the Hampton Memorial Library in Easley on Tuesday, February 27 at 1pm as the SC Department of Consumer Affairs offers an overview of the most common types of scams that result in identity theft. Attendees will leave this presentation armed with the tools required to avoid scams and protect their personal identifying information.

This program is free and open to all. For more information, please call the library at 850-7077.
