Guess the Banned Book @ Your Library!

Banned Books Week, September 24-30, highlights the value of free and open access to information and celebrates the freedom to read. During Banned Books Week, stop by the Hampton Memorial Library in Easley and guess which banned or challenged book we have shredded in a jar. Pick from a list of 10 choices. Correct guesses will be entered in a drawing for a banned books tote!

Only one entry per person is allowed. Multiple entries will be disqualified. This drawing is free to enter and open to all. For more information, stop by or call 850-7077.
