Hear Marc Black Perform in Celebration of the 50th Anniversary of Woodstock!

Join us at the Hampton Memorial Library in Easley on Wednesday, June 26 at 2 pm as we celebrate the 50th Anniversary of Woodstock with a special performance by award-winning musician, Marc Black.

Marc Black is an eclectic folk-rocker who deals with life, and all of its social and political challenges, one song at a time. Noted for his “timeless songs, deep grooves and excellent playing”, Marc was inducted into the New York Chapter of the Blues Hall of Fame in June of 2014.

He’s performed and recorded with many luminaries including Art Garfunkel, Rick Danko, Richie Havens, Taj Mahal and Pete Seeger. He was chosen by Levon Helm to play one of the Midnight Rambles and was recently named Folk Artist of the Year on ABC Radio. As legendary folk artist Happy Traum put it, “Marc is a master...spreading the joy of music with story and song”.

Inspired by Elvis Presley, Marc formed his first music group at age 9. In high school, his band, The Blades of Grass, had a record deal and a top-100 hit in 1967 called “Happy.” The group toured the East Coast with the biggest acts of the day, including the Doors, Van Morrison, and Neil Diamond!

This special program is free and open to the public. For more information, please call the library at 850-7077.
