Modern Quilting Presented by Paige Alexander, Award-Winning Quilter and Author

Join us at the Hampton Memorial Library in Easley on Wednesday, September 19 at 2pm for a presentation by author and award-winning quilter, Paige Alexander. Paige's presentation will focus on the history and characteristics of modern quilting. A trunk show of quilts will be on display and we'll explore the question, "What makes it modern?"

Paige Alexander is the co-author of Modern Plus Sign Quilts. She is an active member of the Upcountry Quilters Guild in Pickens and was instrumental in the formation of the Greenville chapter of the International Modern Quilt Guild.

This program is free and open to all. For more information, please call the library at 850-7077.
