Spectrum Storytime Featuring Pirates and Princesses!

Pirates, princesses, brave knights, and ladies fair- your presence is requested for a fairytale evening full of daring deeds and crowing achievements at the Hampton Memorial Library! Join us on Monday, November 12* starting at 6:30 pm to share stories, play games, and make crafts to take home.

Spectrum Storytime meets regularly on the first Monday of each month at 6:30pm at the Hampton Memorial Library in Easley. *Please note that for November, we will be meeting on the second Monday of the month. These evening storytimes are geared towards children with special needs, their families, and caregivers. Listen to stories, play games, and create arts and crafts projects in a supportive environment. These storytimes are made possible by a grant from the Ezra Jack Keats Foundation.

For more information, call the library at 850-7077 or email youthservices@pickens.lib.sc.us
